

Women's Work Lab

Mums, looking to get back in to work?

Our unique programmes bring together Mums who are all looking to change their lives.

Our transformative programmes help you to rediscover your confidence, recognise your brilliance and set you on a pathway to find work that works for you and your family.

We know that many Mums want to explore working in a school or education setting so we are offering a specialists programme where you can look at the range of different roles, take part in a work placement which will include being supported to gain a transferrable DBS check.
