Thornbury Area Youth Music (TAYM) is a charity set up by parents and volunteers in Thornbury, South Gloucestershire. We provide a variety of music making activities/ensembles in a fun and supportive environment on Saturday mornings in term time.

The various activities/groups include: instrumental lessons, wind and string ensembles, choir, theory, jazz/improvisation/composition for musicians of all ages (4+) and abilities from beginners to grade 8+.

The fees for our classes and instrument hire are affordable, and bursaries are available.

Come along to our recruitment morning on Saturday 6th September (9:30am to 11:30am) to meet Tutors and find out about our classes and ensembles. Your child can try a variety of instruments: flute, clarinet, jSax, cornet, trumpet, pBone, violin, and cello to discover what they would like to try learning!
