

Term 1: Autumn 1

Being me in my world

Key texts this term:

Here we are—Oliver Jeffers

We're going on a bear hunt—
Michael Rosen and Helen Oxenbury

Owl babies—Martin Waddell and Patrick Benson

Understanding the World

Exploring our world and what we know about planet Earth.

Looking at the features of our local area.

Learning about our environment and wildlife.

Communication and language:

Discussing our own lives and sharing our experiences with others in the class.

Sharing our ideas with our class during circle times.

Sharing, retelling and acting out familiar stories.

PSHE and Circle Time

Jigsaw sessions based on sharing and effective ways to manage our feelings and behaviour.

Writing and Phonics

Phase 2 phonics.

Recognising and writing our names

Giving meaning to the marks we make.

Reading

Daily individual reading.

Flashcards of Phase 2 sounds.

CVC word blending.

Recognising rhyming words.

Outdoor Learning

Den building

Creating shapes with natural materials

Making bird feeders.

Sharing stories based on the outdoors.

Maths. Number:

Matching and sorting groups

Representing quantities

Comparing quantities

Shape, Space and Measure:

Exploring, describing and creating basic patterns.

Comparing size, mass and capacity.

Health and Self Care

Exploring how we can keep ourselves healthy and safe.

Effective hand washing.

Creating huge bubbles to talk about
'zones' and 'bubbles'.

Pepper and soap experiment to reinforce the importance of handwashing.

Expressive Arts and Design

Role play corner

Self portraits

Leaf rubbings

Creating autumnal patterns

Bubble pictures.